Will I am too weak to attend without assistance.

Many thanks for the Cheque, which was most welcome. I am only sorry to have troubled you at such an unfavorable time. With affectionate regards to your wife, and sincere wishes for your health and happiness in the coming year

Believe me to remain

Ever yours sincerely

My dear Mr Jermain

I think it is now a month since I heard from you, and I begin to think that your letter has fallen into bad hands. The newspapers are constantly complaining of the bad faith of the Post Office employés, and it is not unlikely that your letter having a foreign post mark may have
